

Escape from Edinburgh Madness to Cool, Green Musselburgh

Frugal Cool's Eco Market and Summer Fête
Loretto Gallery, 3 High Street, Musselburgh

Friday 13 to Sunday 15 August 2010 10.30am to 5pm

Free entry

Once again Frugal Cool is bringing an eco emporium of cool, green design to Musselburgh.

Frugal Cool's Eco Market and Summer Fête will take place at Loretto Gallery, Musselburgh from Friday 13 to Sunday 15 August, 10.30am to 5pm.

All items for sale at this third showcase of sustainable design and craft by local artists and designers are one-offs and made using found objects and/or natural materials. Prices start at just £1. All profits from sales by Frugal Cool at this summer's event will be donated to UNICEF*.

Nicky Orr, owner of Frugal Cool said,

“Whilst Edinburgh has their festival madness we’ll be relaxing by the sea with the best local, sustainable design and enjoying fair-trade crafts from around the world. We’re delighted to be sharing the Gallery once again with The Green Gift Company, with their popular range of chic Fairtrade crafts including their fab and funky new range from Thailand. And with selected vintage and restyled fashion also for sale we want to show everyone how cool it is to be green!”

Highlights of Frugal Cool's Eco Market include,

- New designs from textile artist Julia Laing, vintage remakes for the home from Joanna Barry, recycled gifts by Lynne Wilkins and herbal lotions by Brigid McCarthy Charlton.
- With a range of ethical clothes and chocolate, Ethics Girls fulfils every girl's dream.
- Trash Furnishings will show a new collection of hand finished bespoke up-cycled furniture.
